Background

Scope and Content

Collection comprises a poster protesting against IMF that Aggr[e]vates Inequality and Disempowerment of "poor southern women." Published in Quezon City, Philippines. Images reflect the areas women wish funding to be directed instead, including ecofeminism, reproductive health, leadership organizing, education, economic development, and promoting programs that end violence against women.

Biographical/Historical

Group of Ten Lakas ng Kababaihan, Inc. was established in 1962 as an informal group of countries that contribute to General Arrangements to Borrow (GAB). Those arrangements were established by a decision of the Executive Board of the International Monetary Fund (IMF) with the purpose of increasing their potential lending resources. The Finance Minister and the Governor of the Central Bank of each member country attend the organization's meetings.
