Background

---

Scope and Content

Collection includes audiovisual materials; black-and-white and color photographs; glass plate negatives, memoranda and correspondence; research reports; slides; and other printed materials. Most of the images depict outdoor advertising designs and billboard locations in the Los Angeles and San Francisco, Calif. areas. A wide range of products and services are depicted, including airlines; automobiles and automotive services; banks; cosmetics and health care products; events and entertainment; food and beverages; household goods; tobacco products and travel. The bulk of images depict work performed under the names of Foster and Kleiser and the Patrick Media Group.

Biographical/Historical

Clear Channel is a multi-media communications company based in San Antonio, Tex.

The outdoor advertising company Foster and Kleiser was founded in 1901 by Walter Foster and George Kleiser, initially operating in Portland and Seattle. Foster & Kleiser was sold to Metropolitan Broadcasting in 1959. In 1986 Metromedia, a division of Metropolitan, sold Foster & Kleiser to Patrick Media. Hellman & Friedman together with Karl Eller purchased Patrick Media and renamed it Eller Media in 1995. In 1997 Eller was acquired by Clear Channel Communications, and in 2001 Eller Media changed its name to Clear Channel Outdoor.
