Background

Scope and Content

Collection comprises 229 large-format black-and-white photographs by Rick Lang, taken from 1990 to 2013, documenting the communities and landscapes in Florida and other states of the American South, particularly Louisiana, with an emphasis on roadside advertising and signs, weathered buildings, and small businesses. There are also a few images from New Mexico and Arizona. Also includes 104 digital image files selected by the photographer, and one .pdf inventory.

Prints were created by Lang using gelatin silver or pigmented inkjet processes. Print sizes include 11x14, 13x19, 16x20, and 20x24 inches.

Accompanying the prints is a set of over 3000 negatives and 258 contact sheets, offering many additional images that are not present in the large-format prints series. Film negatives are closed to use; for more information on access, contact the Rubenstein Library.

The collection is completed by a small amount of printed materials chiefly associated with Lang's solo and group exhibits. Includes three photobooks and condolences sent upon his passing in 2013.

Scope and Contents

Traditional gelatin silver prints are sized either 11x14 (boxes 1-3, matted prints) or 16x20 inches (box 4, matted prints), while the digital inkjet prints are 13x19 inches (boxes 5-6, unmatted). Most of the prints are in 16x20 or 20x24 inch window mats. Sizes in boxes 7-8 are a mix of 11x14 or 16x20 inches - most are

An additional 24 digital files that could not be matched to a print appear in a separate Digital Image Files series.
