Background

Scope and Content

This collection documents the work of the Re-Imagining community, brought together by the conference, Re-Imagining: A Global Theological Conference By Women: For Men and Women, a response to the World Council of Churches report "Ecumenical Decade: Churches in solidarity with Women." The organizers drew over 2,000 people to Minneapolis, Minnesota in November 1993, and faced significant backlash.

In 2016, Sherry E. Jordon conducted oral history interviews with 72 participants of the original Re-Imagining gathering in 1993. These oral histories and first set of administration files were added to the collection in 2017.

In 2023, Re-Imagining was dissolved and remaining files pertaining to the organization were added to the collection (Accession 2023-0231). These files include images, plans for gatherings throughout the 2010s, newsletters and meeting invitations, as well as press about Re-Imagining. These files are paper materials and digital materials. Digital audio of the 1998, 2000 and 2000 gatherings are also included.

This collection is organized into four series: Oral History Interviews, Re-Imagining Conferences, Administrative Files and Mary Kay Sauter's Files.

The Oral History series contains 70 oral histories, many of which are available digitally. Oral history speakers and interviewees include Martha O. Administrative Files were received in 2016 and 2023. These files are physical and digital files, and include conference files, press clippings, print materials, planning documents, materials from the second iteration of Re-Imagining (2013-2023) such as board meetings, planning notes, materials related to 25th anniversary events in 2018, newsletters, and correspondence related to the group's legacy planning and dissolution in 2023. These files also contain objects such pens, buttons, tote bags and t-shirts.

Mary Kay Sauter's files date from 1989 to 2003 and document the first iteration of Re-Imagining. These files include newsletters, correspondence, photographs, event planning and materials from the 1993 conference. Mary Kay Sauter's files were received in a box labeled as such.

Reverend Katherine Austin Mahle's files date from 1991 to 2025. The materials focus mostly on the planning and execution of the 1993 conference and then on responses to it, with a few folders related to the Re-Imagining Community and its early years.

Biographical/Historical

Re-Imagining: A Global Theological Conference By Women: For Men and Women, was organized by Mary Ann Lundy (Director of the Presbyterian Church USA's Women's Unit), Sally Hill, Mary Kay Sauter, Rev. Katherine Austin Mahle and other mainline protestant leaders in the United States, to be part of the World Council of Churches' Ecumenical Decade: Churches in Solidarity with Women 1988-1998. The 2,200 attendees, met at the Minneapolis Convention Center on November 4 to 7, 1993, participating in presentations and rituals re-imagining male-centric images and language of traditional Christianity.

The Re-Imagining conference sparked backlash from church leaders and feminist theology became a national conversation. In response to this backlash, organizers founded the Re-Imagining Community, which organized conferences to continue the work of the original conference, as well as furthered feminist theology and liturgy. This group was active from 1994 until 2003.

In 2013, organizers Nadean Bishop and Mary Kay Sauter organized a 20th anniversary celebration of the 1993 conference. After the gathering, participants re-established Re-Imagining Community as a 501(c)3 non-profit, with a focus on preserving the group's history and legacy.

In 2016, Sherry Jordan conducted sixty-five oral history interviews with members of the Re-Imagining Community.

In 2018, Re-Imagining Community held eight events in partnership with six organizations in Minnesota to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the 1993 conference.

In 2023, Re-Imagining Community held a 30th Anniversary event and disbanded as a non-profit.

Biographical/Historical

Dr. Sherry Jordon was awarded her Ph.D in Theology from Yale in 1995 and is a Professor Emeritus of Theology at the University of St. Thomas. She specializes in historical theology, particularly the Reformation period, and Women's Studies. Jordon served on the Coordinating Council of the Re-Imagining Community from 1998-2003, spoke at the 2003 Re-Imagining Gathering, and wrote an essay on feminist theology for Bless Sophia: Worship, Liturgy, and Ritual of the Re-Imagining Community. As part of her current research on the history and theology of Re-Imagining, she completed sixty-five oral interviews with members of the Re-Imagining Community, leading feminist and womanist theologians who presented at the conferences, people who were on the national staff of the women's units in the Presbyterian (USA) and United Methodist churches, and authors who have written books related to Christian feminism and/or Re-Imagining.

Mary Kay Sauter was an original organizer of the 1993 Re-Imagining gathering. She is a retired United Church of Christ pastor.

Rev. Katherine (Kathi) Austin Mahle is an ordained elder in the United Methodist Church, retired. She was a co-chair of the 1993 Re-Imagining Conference and part of the leadership team/out-going chair of the Board of the Great Minneapolis Council of Churches. She was instrumental in forming the Re-Imagining Community in response to the backlash to the 1993 Conference.

Scope and Contents

This series consists of materials donated by Reverend Katherine Austin Mahle in 2025. Rev. Mahle served as a co-chair of the 1993 Re-Imagining Conference and later a leader in the Re-Imagining Community, a group formed in response to the backlash of the 1993 Conference. The materials focus mostly on the planning and execution of the 1993 conference and then on responses to it with a few folders related to the Re-Imagining Community and its early years.

Mahle was also the donor of the original audiocassettes of the 1993 conference that are included in that series.
